The main was originally announced to take place during the holidays, but for some reason or other was postponed. It had been looked forward to postponed. It had been looked forward to with eager anticipation and its postponement only served to increase the desire to be present among those who find pleasure and amusement in that kind of sport. The capacity of the pit was taxed to its utmost last night, over two hundred people being crowded in its small confines. Of this number about fifty were Pittaburghers who had come down to bet on their favorites and have a general good time. The balance of the company was made up of all classes. There was not much style about it, and there was a free and easy air about the entertainment that was in itself entertaining.

evening at the Fourth Street M. E. church with interesting exercises. Rev. Dr. Randolph, the pastor, delivered an appropriate address, and the following annual report was read, showing the admirable work accomplished in the past year by this unpretentious society: ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S CHRIS

THAN ASSOCIATION.

The third year of the Woman's Christian Association of Wheeling is just completed. We have met this evening to look over the records of the past twelve months. Upon the whole, the refrospect is encouraging, and yet, when we consider what remains to be done, we can only take comfort in the words of our Lord: "Whesever shall give a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in my name shall in nowise lose his reward." The hearts of many lonely obscure ones have been gladdened by the visitors of the Association.

the interment will take place. The Opera House brass band will head the procession.

The claim of the Woman's Christian in Association. The claim of the Woman's Christian in Association to the continued confidence and support of Christians in our city is founded on the economy and scriptural tespure of Glenn's murderers. Clues which seemed alight at first promise to be very fruitful.

The Opera House Crowded—An Artistic Frogramme.

The musical and literary entertainment for the benefit of William Helfer, the fireman who was so scriously injured by being upset on the Vigilant real while driving to the Welty fire, was given at the Opera House isst evening, and Mr. M. R. Wolft, the treasurer of the committee, reports that the net proceeds to be turned over to Helfer will be between $550 and $560. The Opera House sac growded to $550. The Opera House sac growded to $550. The Opera House was crowded to $550. The Opera House sac growded to $550. The Opera House sac to Nationies. "Oome and see." Every good cause can afford to wait until it is appreciated. It loses nothing by delay, but is rather strengthened. Do any ask what has the Woman's Christian Associa-tion done? What has it accomplished?

Its work cannot be tabulated, but in-stances without number could be given itances without ... like the following: like the following:

A poor woman who had been led to accept Chriet as her Savior, and who prized and read her neglected Bible till she had gained a remarkable knowledge of its teachings, was told that she must teach her neighbors what she had learned. She said, "No, I am too unworthy. I lived so long for the world I nm no use; but there is one thing I am going to do, I am going to try and be good tempered to my husto try and be good tempered to my hus-band and neighbors; and even if he does continue to drink I will not scold him. If you will hold a prayer meeting in m house I will go to the women in my neigh borhood and invite them to come and hea bound and invite them to come and hear the reading and the singing, and try to join in the prayers, because that is the way the heart is opened."

The attention of all thoughtful Chris-tians is at present centred upon our cities, because, as Rev. Dr. Strong, Secretary of the American Evangelical Alliance, has said, "Life in our cities is becoming a se-rious menace to our civilization. The rious menace to our civilization. The city is very properly called the nerve cen tre of civilization." The demoralizing and re of civilization." The demoralizing and pauperizing power of the saloon and other evils is best known to those who visit the bomes of the poor in this city.

There is perhaps no better proof of a city's general morality than its Sabbath observance; and all know there has been a great increase of Sabbath desecration in a great increase of Sabbath desecration in Wheeling during the last ten years. The members of this Association are not only laboring to lessen this evil, but in many self-denying directions they are helping to lift men, women and children into the light of the highest Christian civilisation. And if the members of our churches were not so sound asleep, much more might be done to save the boys from the penitentiary and the girls from even a worse fate than solitary confinement. Our City Missionary in the strength of a great hope, and an inward zeal seldom great hope, and an inward real seldon equaled, goes from door to door in the name of the Lord, but she needs this Associaof the Lord, but she needs this Association to aid in cottage prayer meetings, and in other ways too numerous to mention. Are there not some on whose ear these words fall to-night, or whose eye they shall catch from the printed page, who will recognize in them a call, the Savior's own call, to engage in so honorable a service?

When Lord Kennaird addressed the Ninth Bieomial Conference of the Women's Christian Associations of the United States and Canada, in New York last October, bringing the cordial greeting of sister for a bullenge. There, the associations are officered and managed by men. He said no money would be given were they under the control of women. In closing he spoke of the "astonishing influence the women of America seemed to have in every direction, and in none was it more marked than in the direction of their husband's cheek book."

Lord Kennaird is President of the Woman's Christian Association, of London, Eogland, and his sisters, the Misses Gertrude and Emily Kennaird, are scorataries of the Woman's Christian Associations of Great Britgin. They have sent an autograph letter to our Association workers for the new year, wishing us increasing success in and the blessing of our Lord upon the work.

They also sent a list of daily Bible Readings, in the use of which they desire us to join them, and their motto card for 1888. Texts: 2d Timothy, 2:13, and Hebrews 18:8. The Christian Association has still before it enlarged opportunities for good to our own sex, if we can but obtain the necessary recourses to develop them.

Thanks to our faithful helpers for what they have done in the past, through an abiding faith in Him for, whom and by whom all our work is wrought. He alone can give us the needed strength for the
